ANTIGAL UNO CABERNET SAUVIGNON 2016 Mendoza, Argentina

WINEMAKING

Hand harvested grapes, from heavily pruned vines in one of Antigal's high altitude Uco Valley vineyards, are immediately chilled and double sorted upon their arrival at the winery. The facility's gravity-fed technology allows for ultra gentle winemaking, which protects the grapes' true varietal character and well balanced acidity.

TASTING NOTES

"Antigal UNO Cabernet Sauvignon 2016 attracts the eye with its beautiful color, a deep ruby with flashes of black. The wine's cherry dominant red fruit flavors are underscored with notes of white pepper, tobacco, vanilla and cocoa. Tannins are robust yet smoothly rounded and the finish long. This wine can be enjoyed now with roasted or grilled meats like pork and game. The wine also ages well."
